

HARC Programs: A Synopsis of HV Staff Surveys

Below is a summary of the characteristics of the 144 home visiting staff that completed the HARC practice-based research network enrollment survey.

Characteristics of Home Visiting Staff (N= 144)
Characteristics	N
Primary Position
Home Visitor	75	Data Manager	11
Supervisor	43	Other	15
Characteristics	%	Characteristics	%
Number of years working in home visiting
<6 months	7%	Do the work of more than one position¹	25%
>6 months to 2 years	24%	Supervise home visitors	35%
>2 to 5 years	27%	How many supervisees
>5 to 10 years	21%	≤5	64%
>10 to 20 years	15%	6-10	28%
>20 years	5%	>10	9%
Highest educational degree
High school degree or GED	6%	Have a caseload of families	60%
Associate degree	6%	Number of families on caseload
Bachelor's degree	55%	≤10	44%
Master's degree	29%	≤20	46%
Doctoral degree/MD/JD	4%	>21	10%
Prior research involvement	47%

¹Positions listed other than primary one: program manager, supervisor, home visitor, data manager; coach; case load, resource & group coordinator(s); hospital liaison, program administrator, fundraiser, community outreach, parent educator; PI; dual roles with CSHCS, EI, other HV programs, and other perinatal community programs