New HARC Resources

Directory of Self-Report Measures of Internal Engagement

To support precision measurement in home visiting research, HARC is conceptualizing family engagement in home visiting. Engagement is an important aspect of usage in the Precision Paradigm. This month HARC, in partnership with the Tufts Interdisciplinary Evaluation Research team, released a directory of measures of internal engagement that can be used in home visiting research and evaluation.

Monthly Peer-Reviewed Literature Updates

Peer-reviewed Literature Updates

Each month, HARC shares recently published peer-reviewed home visiting research articles. Articles are identified via a Google Scholar alert, thus the list may not include all published articles. View the citations and links to open access articles here.

Calling Home Visiting Programs and Program Staff

Supporting and Strengthening the Home Visiting Workforce (SAS-HV)

Supporting and Strengthening the Home Visiting Workforce project team needs your help to develop a measure of reflective supervision for the field. We are close to our goal of 500 supervisors; however, we would still like to hear from more supervisors. Thank you to those who have already participated. Supervisors can complete the 1-hour survey (and receive a $35 gift card) if they provide individual supervision to home visitors implementing a model eligible for MIECHV funds. Please do not post the survey link on social media.

To learn more about the project, read the frequently asked questions or view the informational flyer. If you have questions or need clarification, please email sashv@jbassoc.com.

Invitations for Public Comment on Federal Initiatives

Home Visiting Evidence of Effectiveness (HomVEE) Invitation for Public Comment

HRSA, in partnership with ACF, seeks public comment on proposed revisions to how the HomVEE systematic evidence review defines and reviews home visiting model adaptations. Additional details are available here. Send your comments by email to HomVEE@acf.hhs.gov by July 12, 2024.

ACF is Requesting Feedback on Their Guidance for Submitting Reports

In an effort to make their annual report instructions easier to understand for Tribal MIECHV grantees, HHS is requesting public comments. If you wish to provide feedback, please send your comments via email to infocollection@acf.hhs.gov. Deadline is August 5, 2024.

Upcoming Webinar

National Home Visiting Summit's Professional Development Community of Practice Webinar (August 1, 3-4pm ET, virtual event)

Register for the National Home Visiting Summit's Professional Development webinar to discuss the principles and competencies associated with advocacy in relation to professional development of the home visiting workforce.

Upcoming Conferences

ZERO to THREE's LEARN Conference (July 31 - August 1, 2024, in Long Beach, CA)

Registration is still open for ZERO to THREE's LEARN Conference. The goal of this conference is to transform early childhood concepts into action, theories into skills, and the shared passion into positive energy that propels the field forward. This conference is a great way to learn from the experts in the field, build networks, and connect with friends.

American Public Health Association (APHA) 2024 Annual Meeting and Expo (October 27-30, 2024, in Minneapolis, MN)

This year's APHA meeting theme is Rebuilding Trust in Public Health and Science including current and emerging issues in public health. Each year this meeting provides high-quality, science-based education, engaging networking opportunities, and cutting-edge resources to thousands of public health professionals across the nation.

Registration for the 2024 APHA annual meeting will open in June.

Society for Social Work and Research (SSWR) Annual Conference (January 15-19, 2025, in Seattle, WA)

Save the date for SSWR's annual conference entitled, Strengthening Social Impact through Collaborative Research. SSWR's annual conference offers a scientific program that reflects a variety of research interests including workshops on the latest research methodologies and sessions on research priorities and capacity building that target cutting-edge topics vital to contemporary social work research.

National Home Visiting Summit (February 12-14, 2025, in Washington, DC)

The call for proposals is now open for the 2025 National Home Visiting Summit. Proposals should address systems change work within home visiting and early childhood systems of care. To learn more about submissions, the agenda, and registration please visit Start Early. Deadline is August 30, 2024.

24th National Conference on Child Abuse and Neglect (April 1-3, 2025, in Rockville, MD)

Save the date for the 24th National Conference on Child Abuse and Neglect \(NCCAN\), sponsored by the Children's Bureau. Innovative sessions will focus on developing ideas-to-action strategies that provide opportunities to exchange ideas and learn what works from community members and peers.

For more information on upcoming conferences, please visit HARC's Upcoming Conferences and Webinars page!

Don't Miss Out! Early Career Researcher Opportunity

ICPSR Summer Program in Quantitative Methods

This summer program, designed for undergraduates to mid-career researchers, provides comprehensive training in statistics, quantitative and qualitative methods, and data analysis. Beyond the coursework, the program features hands-on, applied work in statistical software packages, provides students with individual feedback and one-on-one consultation, as well as guidance from faculty.
