“coronavirus has made the mighty kneel and brought the world to a halt like nothing else could. Our minds are still racing back and forth, longing for a return to ‘normality,’ trying to stitch our future to our past and refusing to acknowledge the rupture. But the rupture exists. And in the midst of this terrible despair, it offers us a chance to rethink the doomsday machine we have built for ourselves. Nothing could be worse than a return to normality.”

~ Arundhati Roy (2020)

A scenic landscape featuring a winding asphalt road that curves through a field of hay bales. In the background, there are rolling hills and a forest of trees. The sky is a mix of blue and orange, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall mood is peaceful and hopeful.
